The policies of the class have been established in order to ensure consistency and continuity of study, and to maintain a positive learning and teaching environment. By registering for study at this class parents and students agree to follow the policies and procedures stated in this letter.

Attendance and Student Absences:

Attendance records for students are maintained by the instructors. All classes will end at the scheduled time so that subsequent classes remain on time. Students must notify the instructors of any anticipated absences for any reason, as a courtesy to the instructors and members in the class. However, this does not exempt the student from payment as contracted. There will be no makeup class for the student absences.

Dismissal:

The instructors reserve the right to dismiss any student for any of the following reasons:

- Lack of interest or progress
- Frequent absences (three consecutive absences without legitimate written excuse)
- Frequent tardiness (if you are going to be late for more than 15 minutes request permit from the instructor) more than 15 minutes, request permit from Director.
- Behavioral problems
- Failure to abide by class policies
- Delinquency in payment of fees
- In cases where students are viewed as disruptive, uncooperative, or detrimental to the progress of the class, instructors may request that individual students either be removed from the class or not permitted to register. In all cases, the instructors decide whether a student should be dismissed, if a warning notice should be issued prior to dismissal, and/or if a parent-instructor conference is required.

Notices:

During the term, the instructors communicate with students and parents mainly by way of notices posted near the front door of the class room. Students and parents are responsible for reading all posted notices. The instructors reserve the right to reschedule or cancel classes due to unforeseen circumstances. All such changes will be posted.

Problems:

If problems arise (e.g., financial, instructional, personal), it is the responsibility of the parent and/or student to notify the instructors. Every effort will be made to respond to individual needs and to resolve problems appropriately. These issues should be addressed by appointment with instructor or after class sessions are over.

Performance Opportunities:

All the decisions and performance opportunities are chosen by the instructors; parents and students opinions must be reserved. Students demonstrate their technical skills at the informal studio presentations during the semester. This process-oriented studio format allows parents the opportunity to observe the structure of an actual dance class, and gives them the advantage of sharing and understanding the dance education and progress of their children. Students also perform, as guests, at the annual recital of the Dance Company.

Any Choreographies, costumes, and music perform in Tierra Blanca Dance Company should remain within the company. The use of any of these materials perform is prohibited.

The Dance Company & Tierra Blanca Arts Center is an independent entity therefore all activities related to it is reserved by the director of the company to his/her discretion.

Teacher Absence:

If the teacher is absent from a scheduled lesson, a makeup lesson will be scheduled at a mutually convenient time. If the student misses such a makeup lesson, there will be no second makeup opportunity and the teacher obligation will have been met.

Touching Policy:

Participation in the class may involve physical contact by instructors in the course of teaching, for the purpose of illustrating what is been taught. By enrolling at this class students and parents consent to such appropriate contact.
